

St. Paul's Co-educational College Alumni Association

Career Panel – Legal

We will be holding a Career Panel on the legal industry on 13th October 2018. Building on the great turnout from our previous career panels, we hope that all alumni interested in law or are currently in the legal field can join this event. It will be a great opportunity for current university students, trainees, pupils and young practitioners to learn more about the legal industry, its developments and challenges and network with fellow alumni.

Date: 13th October 2018 (Saturday)

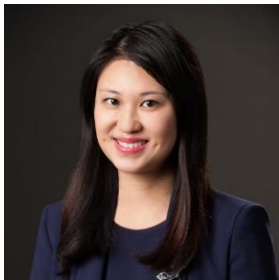

Time: 2:30pm – 5:00pm

Location: Lecture Theatre, St. Paul's Co-educational College, 33 MacDonnell Road, Hong Kong

Cost: Free of charge

For interested alumni, please fill in and return the attached registration form.

Speaker Profiles

Eva Chan

Partner in Financial Markets Group and Graduate Recruitment, Simmons and Simmons

Eva is a partner in the Financial Markets Group and Graduate Recruitment Partner at Simmons & Simmons. Eva specialises in investment funds and has advised on and been involved in over 50% of the exchange traded funds listed in Hong Kong. Eva has acted for many large fund houses and financial institutions including Amundi, Bank of Montreal, Bank of New York Mellon, Boser, Commerzbank, Deutsche Bank, Samsung, Société Générale and Value Partners. She has been recognised as a leading lawyer in Investment Funds by IFLR1000 and Chambers Asia Pacific.

Michelle Chow

Consultant, Withers

Michelle is a Consultant in the private client and tax team at Withers. She advises on wealth planning matters including setting up discretionary trusts, from advice on trust structures to transfer of assets to distribution; change of trustees and termination of trusts. She specialises in Charity law and advises on the setting up of charitable organisations and governance matters for universities, schools, banks, corporations and individuals. Michelle regularly lectures on philanthropy and charity law issues, as well as writes articles for the press. She has spoken at numerous conferences in Hong Kong and overseas, including the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) seminars and conferences, Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) conferences and various university programs on NGO management.

John Hui

Barrister At law, Des Voeux Chambers

John has a broad civil practice encompassing major areas including public, commercial and corporate law. He had advised on a wide range of commercial matters concerning broadcasting, telecommunications, finance and securities, insurance, shipping, civil fraud, conflict of laws and jurisdiction. John has been actively developing a competition law practice in Hong Kong. In 2015, he acted as junior counsel for the Communications Authority in Hong Kong in a judicial review, in Television Broadcasts Limited v Communications Authority & The Chief Executive in Council, a landmark decision in Hong Kong discussing the general principles of competition provisions and other important issues in competition law proceedings. In January 2016, he was appointed to the Hong Kong Competition Commission's Panel of External Counsel. John has acted in a number of high profile cases such as the Bawang defamation trial, a number of judicial reviews concerning the television broadcasting industry, and a high value Mareva injunction application freezing over €335 million worth of assets. Apart from court litigation, John regularly handles international arbitration matters under the HKIAC/UNCITRAL rules.

SPCCAA Career Panel - Legal (13 October 2018)

To: St. Paul's Co-educational College Alumni Association
33 MacDonnell Road, Hong Kong
Tel: 2877-2885 Fax: 2522-2255 Whatsapp: 9222-0776
Email: spccaa@spccaa.org

Name: _____(English) _____(Chinese)

Year of Graduation: _____

Telephone No: _____

Email address: _____

Address: _____

Working Industry: _____

Industries interested in for future career panels: _____